READ Home Department endorsement dated 24th July 1866, No. 3042, on a letter from the Government of the Punjab, enquiring whether the sentence in Section 11, Act V. of 1861—"stoppages from the pay of Police Officers during absence from sickness or "other causes"—applies to all Police Officers below the grade of Assistant District Superintendent, or only to Police Officers drawing less than 20 Rupees a month; or, in other words, whether the Police Superannuation Fund is to receive credit for the savings from the salaries of Officers only of classes not entitled to the benefit of the Uncovenanted Service Pension Rules and therefore required to subscribe to the Fund, or whether the Fund will receive the benefit of the savings from the salaries of all grades of Officers below that of Assistant District Superintendent.

RESOLUTION.—The Governor General in Council is clearly of opinion at the phrase in Section 11, Act V. of 1861—"stoppages from the pay of Police Officers during absence from sickness a other causes"—applies exclusively to the Police Officers of the class mentioned in the earlier portion of the Section, viz., the class "not entitled to the benefit of the Uncovenanted Service Pension Rules," in other words, to those Officers whose pay does not exceed Rupees 20 per month; and that it cannot be stretched to embrace all Officers below the grade of Assistant District Superintendent, any more than it can be held to include the entire Department from the Inspector General downward.

ORDERED that the foregoing Resolution be communicated to the Home Department,* to the Comptroller General of Accounts, and to the Local Officers of Account in the Civil Department.

* Original papers returned—copies having been kept.

No. 718-52, dated 28th February 1867.

From—Lieut. A. Bloomfield, Offg. Asstt. Secy. to Chief Commr., Central Provinces,
To—The Secretary to Government of India, Home Dept.

I am directed by the Chief Commissioner to submit for the consideration and orders of the Government of India, a proposal made by the Inspector General of Police, Central Provinces, to the effect that Policemen who re-enlist within a year after discharge be allowed to count as service for gratuity or pension from the Police Superannuation Fund their service prior to re-engagement.

2. This privilege has been allowed to the men of the Punjab Police on the following grounds.

It frequently happens that owing to pressure of duties District Superintendents are unable to grant, even to the authorized number of men, the indulgence of leave. The consequence is, that men who have urgent family business, and who fail to get leave, resign; and the Police Force loses the services of men who had become acquainted with their duties.

3. Without some inducement the men do not re-enlist, and thus the Police Force often has to work with recruits who perform their duties, while they have to be taught at the same time.

4. Care, however, is to be taken that, on re-enlisting men under this rule, it is ascertained that the men are deserving of the privilege, and that it is worth while obtaining their services for the Police, and moreover that the period of their absence has not exceeded twelve months.

Each case is reported for the orders of the Inspector General of Police, who decides whether the individual is deserving of the privilege.

5. The Chief Commissioner is of opinion that such a rule would be of benefit to the Police of the Central Provinces, and facilitate the obtaining of really good men for the force, and he accordingly recommends that the sanction of the Government of India may be accorded to the extension of it to the Central Provinces under such rules as the Local Administration may from time to time see fit to lay down.

No. 2670, dated 15th March 1867.

Endorsed by the Government of India, Home Dept.

Forwarded for consideration and orders to the Financial Department, with reference to extract thence No. 546, dated the 30th May 1865. Return requested.

Ordered, that the Home Department be informed that the Chief Commissioner's proposal is sanctioned, and that the concession should be general.

Ordered also, that the several local Officers of Account in the Civil Department be informed accordingly
